Script 1

Mike: Mum, I'm in a terrible hurry. Can I have my lunch right away? We're going to Shaldon for a game of golf. The boys are picking me up at one o'clock, and I've promised to be ready on time. Gosh, it's twenty to one already! Is that clock right?

Mum: No, it's ten minutes fast. It's not quite half past twelve yet. But it doesn't make any difference – I've just put our lunch in the oven and it won't be ready for more than half an hour.

Mike: Mmm! It smells marvelous! Is it ham and egg pie? I can't wait for that now though. Put some by for me and I'll have it this evening. What can I have straight away? I'm starving.

Mum: I can make you a mushroom omelette in five minutes or you can have what's left of this pork pie. It looks a bit stale, though – try a bit first.

Mike: It doesn't taste too bad. I'll have this with some cheese and tomatoes. It's not much of a lunch but at least I'll be ready in time.

Mum: I'm used to your racing in and out and expecting a meal within five minutes, but this is not a restaurant with a 24 hour service and I'm not a magician. You just have to take pot luck, if you can't make your arrangements in advance and give me some warning of your movements.

Mike: Well, it's a rotten restaurant and I'm going to complain to the manager. If I die of food poisoning, they'll put you in prison for years.

Script 2

My name's Jake, and I recently went on a fantastic diving trip with my family – swimming under the water!

It was very exciting. I'd never gone diving in open water before, like a river or a lake. I'd just done my diving training in a pool. But I was really looking forward to my first real sea dive, so off we went. We couldn't decide where to go at first. We considered going somewhere in Europe, but then friends in the USA offered to let us stay with them, so we went to the coast there, where there were perfect diving conditions.

On the first day we went out in a boat with our instructor and other people learning to dive. My father stayed in the boat, and my cousin jumped into the sea at the same time as me. I was excited, although a bit scared too, as the water was deep. As we swam down, we saw lots of strange sights – a huge plant growing underwater, some shells, and my favourite thing of all, a ship! It had been there many years, and it was fascinating to look at.

I was a bit worried as we were swimming around because we'd heard there might be sharks in the area – only small ones, but it didn't matter! So I was very scared when some big creatures came swimming towards us – but they turned out to be dolphins! They played with us in the water. We even managed to get some photos. We hoped we'd see some flying fish – but no such luck!

Each day's dives were completely different. We did three dives on the first day, and four on the second, plus a few more – eleven dives altogether, including a night dive! I even got a diving qualification at the end of it all! It was the best trip ever.
