Explore the future - come to Sosnovy Bor!

^{Previously} A tiny town Sosnovy Bor does not exist anymore. Instead, a big huge megapolis drowning in skyscrapers is now facing us.

Travelling

constantly buzzing cars are nowhere to be seen. Electric capsules and other vehicles are floating in the air - driveways, and patrolling passengers around the city.

Work is not a pressure, it is a pleasure!

Superficial office buildings and crowded public schools are replaced with personal cozy rooms located far from each other. Due to being integrated with garden and pool areas, these places eliminate the need to come home every night or go out, regularly.

Spare time.

The best way to spend your free time in this unconventional world is obsolete: cooking some pasta with your dad ^{with better so,} or going to various jaw-dropping places, which ^(with friends) include robotic shops with the most recent software and talking robots, or contemporary art museums. Eat smart.

Although the process of consuming food has simplified a lot (now it consists of eating a pill with all the vitamins every day), people still do cook, but, frankly, they do it for fun. However, if you prefer consume everything, restaurants, Sosnovy Bor has a plethora of them to offer.

To sum everything up, Sosnovy Bor is an amazingly developed and modern city which easily suits ^{anyone} anybody from a past-100-year to a keen-on-technology teenager.
